

FABIAN & CLAUDE WALTER GALERIE

Obsessive

Exhibition, curated by the Fabian & Claude Walter Gallery, Zurich and the Gallery Roemerapotheke, Zurich

Art? One big rave, a gargantuan craze. But while the art market is in it for the investments, for the two galleries Fabian & Claude Walter and gallery Roemerapotheke it has been and is all about contents. Obsessively about contents, just like it is for the artists they represent.

Following the first edition off the Villa Renata project in 2013, the two galleries will curate a show with contemporary positions in the spacious rooms of this fine mansion in the center of Basel, on Socinstrasse 16. "Obsessive" stands for the passion, the rave and the consequent way of both the galleries and the artists, with which they move. Neither trends nor hypes, nor market directions or any other mainstream characteristics influence the way they move on. Their focus lies purely on undiscovered, obsessive art, with a special emphasis on quality. For that, the old Basel house with its seven classy rooms and the little park is the perfect location. It is the perfect alternative to the stressful art fair buzz, the place to go for an hour of art contemplation, the refuge in a whirling and busy Basel week, where you can find the unusual and the unexpected, while sipping on a glass of wine.
